AMUSEMENTS

MAY ALLISON AT BURTER TODAY.

"The Testing of Mildred Vane," a story of mystery, love and mirth, will be the attraction at the Butler today, starring the popular actress, May Allison. The play is a unique combination of mystery and drama with a dash of light comedy cleverly worked in. Spiritualism figures prominently in the plot, which tells the story of a man who believes that it is possible to make the dead suffer through the cruelties inflicted on the living. This man, Dr. Hernandez, loved Mildred's mother, but was refused by her when she married Matthew Vane. After many years, with hatred still uppermost in his heart, he decided on a diabolical plot by which he proposes to take revenge on both Mildred and her father, and in this manner through the sufferings of her loved ones—torture the heart of the dead woman. His methods are cleverly worked out in this remarkable play, but he is foiled in his plans by young Albert Moreland, a professor of Greek, and the brave girl herself. The story ends with the pretty romance of the young couple. The other feature on today's bill is a two-reel Mack Sennet comedy, "Reilly's Wash Day," full of laughs from start to finish.

Tomorrow, Bryant Washburn, in thrilling photoplay, "The Gypsy Trail," and Antonio Moreno, in "Perils of Thunder Mountain."

Monday, a special attraction, beautiful Olive Thomas, in "Upstairs and Down."

CENTRAL ROAD THROUGH UTAH

The bonding proposition for good roads in Millard county, Utah, carried by a large majority, which provides for the expenditure of $60,000 on the Grand Central highway of that county. This, with the work already done, will provide for the completion of a first class highway between Delta, Utah, and the state line of Nevada near the Simonson ranch in Snake valley, and which will be used extensively in the near future by the farmers of Millard county in trucking their product to the markets of the Ely district.

The bonding proposition for Millard county carried a total of $260,000 for the improvement of its roads, which, added to the appropriations by the state and federal government, will give that county the splendid sum of $230,000 for road improvement.

The immediate completion of the road through their counties, as they are anxious for this new route which will then become an international highway from Colorado to the Pacific coast. In fact, the road through these counties is already receiving considerable travel as it shortens the distance as against the route via Salt Lake by at least 100 miles. It now seems probable that the Grand Central highway from Green River to Ely will be open for travel before the close of next year, thus giving this city another transcontinental highway which will prove of almost as much importance as the Lincoln highway, and in addition to this travel it will be the means of allowing the ranchers along the line of the new highway in Utah to avail themselves of the Ely market for their produce. This of itself will be a long way toward solving the economic question for the Ely district, and doubtless will also result in a material increase in business for Ely merchants, as the truck owners will avail themselves of the opportunity to supply their wants while in this city.

One of the largest transactions in land, livestock, ranch and range property reported in this section for some time took place the forepart of the month when the W. C. Pitt company of Lovelock closed a deal taking over the Powell and Strieth holdings in Buena Vista valley, near Elko. The Pitt company purchased from Messrs. Powell and Strieth all the personal property, livestock, crops, water rights and range owned by them in Buena Vista valley.

The Powell ranch is one of the finest stock ranches in this section of the state, and the Strieth ranch, while a smaller property, is also a very fine stock ranch—Humboldt Star.

Love is said to be blind because it can never see its finish.
